

Sectors and Solutions – the challenge

Emission Limit Values for new installations are not sufficient to reduce emissions, when old installations are still being used

1. What effective examples are available to stimulate replacement of existing stables, ships, domestic stoves?
2. How can we go further than maximum feasible technical measures? behavioral change
3. What knowledge is missing? Which expertise should be sought?
4. Which policy fora should be addressed?